

"International Relations strikes a wonderful balance between providing students with factual knowledge about what is going on in the world and the theoretical tools necessary to make sense of it all. Clearly written, well organized, and up-to-the-minute, it is a terrific introduction to the field."

—ANDREW KYDD, University of Wisconsin–Madison

"Students have realized that women—as factory workers, as peace activists, as political thinkers—need to be discussed in IR courses. Goldstein and Pevehouse's up-to-the-minute, engaging introductory text responds to this need."

—CYNTHIA ENLOE, Clark University

"[As authors of a] thoroughly engaging and comprehensive textbook, Goldstein and Pevehouse successfully guide students in applying IR theory to real world events. The authors do a masterful job of explaining world affairs and of developing students' ability to evaluate contemporary international policy debates."

—JELENA SUBOTIC, Georgia State University
